"Light Carrier and Margaret: A Divine Appointment"

Light Carrier's gift of empathy wasn't just for sensing pain—it was a weapon against the enemy. By paying attention to God's nudges in her heart, she notices and addresses people in need of comfort.

In an experience she had with a woman the Lord led her to in the market, Light Carrier felt overwhelming unhappiness in the atmosphere as she approached a young woman with a smile. Instead of speaking immediately, she prayed, asking God to reveal something that would put her at ease, and then Light Carrier received a word of wisdom: She knew the woman's name. "Is your name Margaret?" Light Carrier asked gently.

Margaret froze. "How do you know that?"

Light Carrier smiled. "God knows your name, and He told me. He also told me your great-grandmother's name was Margaret." Margaret's eyes widened. No one had ever told her about the connection before.

Light Carrier continued, "Did you know that 'Margaret' means Pearl? In the Bible, pearls represent beauty and great value."

Tears welled up in Margaret's eyes. "Does God talk to you?" she whispered.

"Oh yes, all the time," Light Carrier assured her. "And He talks to you too—you just haven't learned how to recognize His voice yet."

Margaret hesitated. "How does He want to talk to me?"

"Through His Word, prayer, and the Holy Spirit," Light Carrier explained. "God wants a personal relationship with you so you can be free from the things you don't understand."

They continued talking as they moved through the checkout and into the parking lot. Margaret opened up about how she had always felt different like something was wrong with her, but she never understood why.

Then, Light Carrier asked the big question. "Would you like to meet Jesus?"

Margaret hesitated only for a moment. Then, with a deep breath, she said, "Yes."

They set their bags down, and Light Carrier took her soft hands in her own. Looking directly into Margaret's beautiful blue eyes, she said, "God wants me to introduce you to His Son, Jesus. He is here with us now. We can't see Him, because He exists in another realm, but He is very real."

Margaret nodded, soaking in every word.

Then, Light Carrier led her in prayer. Right there, between parked cars, Margaret surrendered her life to Jesus.

Light Carrier explained, "You are free now. But you must learn to walk in your new authority in Christ."

She encouraged Margaret to get connected to a strong local church and invited her to a healing and discipleship group for new believers.

Before parting, Margaret whispered, "Thank you."

Light Carrier smiled. "It was never about me. God sent me because He loves you."

As Light Carrier walked away, she knew that she had just witnessed a life forever changed. Margaret's spirit was reborn, stepping into a new life with Christ.

The battle had been won—not with swords or might, but with obedience and love.

What Does It Mean to Be Born Again?

Being "born again" means that your dead spirit comes to life through Jesus. The Bible tells us in John 3:3 that Jesus said, "Jesus answered him, 'Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see God's Kingdom.'" (WEB). This isn't a physical birth—it's a spiritual resurrection. When someone accepts Jesus as their Savior, their spirit is made alive in Christ, as they receive a new heart and a new spirit (Ezekiel 36:26) It means:

1. Our sins are forgiven.
2. We become God's children.
3. The Holy Spirit lives in us and helps us follow God.
4. We now have eternal life with Jesus.
5. Just like Margaret, when we say "yes" to Jesus, we start a fresh, new life with Him!

Discussion Questions:

1. What does the Bible say our battle is against?
2. Have you ever felt like something was stopping you from doing the right thing?
3. What are three things God gives us to stand strong in battle?
4. How can prayer help us when we feel afraid?
5. Write or draw a picture of you standing strong in God's power.

Activity: Listening to God's Voice

1. Supplies Needed: Paper and crayons (or markers)
2. Draw a picture of Light Carrier talking to the woman in the store.
3. Ask them to draw themselves in a situation where they had to listen to God's voice instead of fear.
4. Discussion: How do we know when God is speaking to us? What can we do when doubt tries to stop us?

Closing Prayer:

"Dear Jesus, thank You for speaking to us and helping us recognize Your voice. Give us courage to follow You, even when the enemy tries to make us afraid. We trust You, and we want to be a light in the world. Amen!"

*Blessed Be,
Ms Cindy*

Teacher's Guide - Lesson 1: Recognizing the Battle

- 1. Lesson Objectives: 1.1. Understand that spiritual battles exist and are unseen because they are in our mind. 1.2. Recognize that God has given them authority to stand strong. 1.3. Learn how to listen to God's voice and obey Him.
- 2. Memory Verse: 2.1. "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places." – Ephesians 6:12 (ESV)
- 3. Lesson Overview: 3.1. Introduction: Explain that not all battles are physical—some are spiritual. 3.2. Story Time: Read Light Carrier's Mission and discuss. 3.3. Discussion Questions: Engage students with guided questions. 3.4. Activity: Reinforce the lesson with hands-on learning. 3.5. Workbook Questions: Test understanding and retention. 3.6. Prayer & Reflection: Encourage personal application.
- 4. Discussion Prompts for Teachers: 4.1. What does it mean to be in a spiritual battle? 4.2. How can we tell the difference between God's voice and doubt? 4.3. Have you ever felt nervous about obeying God? What happened? 4.4. How do we "carry God's light" in everyday situations? 4.5. Why do you think the woman in the story was so moved by Light Carrier's words?
- 5. Workbook Answer Key: 5.1. (c) Spiritual forces of evil 5.2. (a) A nudge from the Holy Spirit 5.3. (b) By whispering doubt in her mind 5.4. (c) The woman cried because she had prayed for a sign 5.5. (Open-ended; look for answers that reflect recognizing God's voice and obeying Him.)
- 6. Teaching Tips: 6.1. For Younger Kids (5-8): Act out the story using role-play. 6.2. For Older Kids (9-12): Have students write their own "Light Carrier" moment when they listened to God. 6.3. For Group Learning: Assign small groups to discuss different questions and present their answers.
- 7. Additional Activities: 7.1. Creative Writing: Have students write a short journal entry about a time they obeyed God. 7.2. Art Project: Draw a scene from the story or a personal "God moment." 7.3. Memory Verse Challenge: Have students practice and recite the verse in pairs.
- 8. Closing Prayer: 8.1. "Dear Jesus, thank You for showing us that we are part of Your plan. Help us to hear Your voice, stand strong in faith, and bring Your light to those around us. Amen!"
- 9. Teacher Reflection: 9.1. What moments stood out to the students? 9.2. Did any students share personal experiences? 9.3. How can this lesson be applied to real-life situations?
- 10. This Teacher's Guide is designed to help you lead meaningful discussions and reinforce biblical truth. Feel free to adapt it based on your students' needs.

Teacher's Guide: Full Story Version

(This story is taken directly from the book, allowing teachers to decide how much detail to share with their students.)

This story is from Light Carrier Chronicles: Book One, Chapter 15.

Light Carrier and Margaret: A Divine Appointment

Light Carrier's gift of empathy wasn't just for sensing pain—it was a weapon against the enemy. By understanding the depths of people's bondage, she could speak directly to their needs, breaking through the lies that held them captive.

In an experience she had with a woman the Lord led her to in the market, Light Carrier felt overwhelming shame, humiliation, and timidity in the atmosphere around her as she approached the young woman with a smile. Instead of speaking immediately, she prayed, asking God to reveal the root of her bondage.

Then it came to her—the open door to the demonic was from sexual abuse. A spirit of lust had entered an ancestor through an act of rape, and through that trauma, the spirit transferred down the bloodline to the woman before her. She had no idea why she felt such deep shame, and it had kept her isolated, unable to form relationships.

Light Carrier understood that families often hide tragic events like rape, unaware that it allows demons to torment them. As a deliverance minister, she knew the enemy's strategy: if left unbroken, the spirit would continue its generational cycle, unless someone rose up as the family's curse breaker.

When Light Carrier approached, the woman tried to avoid her. But before she could get away, Light Carrier received a word of wisdom:

She knew the woman's name.

"Is your name Margaret?" Light Carrier asked gently.

Margaret froze. "How do you know that?"

Light Carrier smiled. "God knows your name, and He told me. He also told me your great-grandmother's name was Margaret."

Margaret's eyes widened. No one had ever told her about the connection before.

Light Carrier continued, "Did you know that 'Margaret' means Pearl? In the Bible, pearls represent beauty and great value."

Tears welled up in Margaret's eyes. "Does God talk to you?" she whispered.

"Oh yes, all the time," Light Carrier assured her. "And He talks to you too—you just haven't learned how to recognize His voice yet."

Margaret hesitated. "How does He want to talk to me?"

"Through His Word, prayer, and the Holy Spirit," Light Carrier explained. "God wants a personal relationship with you, so you can be free from the things you don't understand."

They continued talking as they moved through the checkout and into the parking lot. Margaret opened up about how she had always felt different, like something was wrong with her, but she never understood why.

Then, Light Carrier asked the big question.

"Would you like to meet Jesus?"

Margaret hesitated only for a moment. Then, with a deep breath, she said, "Yes."

They set their bags down, and Light Carrier took her fragile hands in her own. Looking directly into Margaret's soulful blue eyes, she said, "God wants me to introduce you to His Son, Jesus. He is here with us now. We can't see Him, because He exists in another realm, but He is very real."

Margaret nodded, soaking in every word.

Then, Light Carrier led her in prayer.

Right there, between parked cars, Margaret surrendered her life to Jesus.

But that wasn't the end of the battle.

Margaret had spiritual baggage that needed to be dealt with. So before they parted ways, Light Carrier explained, "There are evil spirits that have been tormenting you, but they are not part of who you are. If you allow me, I will command them to leave."

Margaret hesitated, but nodded.

So Light Carrier began the deliverance prayer.

"I rebuke you, spirits of fear, abuse, and lust," she declared. "I bind you together with shame, rejection, helplessness, despair, anxiety, depression, loneliness, and every other unclean spirit that entered Margaret. I command you to leave her, in Jesus' mighty name!"

Margaret trembled, but then something happened—she felt lighter.

Light Carrier continued, "Father, I ask that You put a restraining order on Satan, forbidding him from torturing Margaret. Dissolve this curse, so it will never again affect her, her family, or her descendants."

At that moment, the spirits shrieked and fled.

Margaret's entire demeanor changed. The weight of oppression lifted, and she felt peace for the first time in her life.

Light Carrier explained, "You are free now. But you must learn to walk in your new authority in Christ."

She encouraged Margaret to get connected to a strong local church and invited her to a healing and discipleship group for new believers.

Before parting, Margaret whispered, "Thank you."

Light Carrier smiled. "It was never about me. God sent me because He loves you."

As Light Carrier walked away, she knew that she had just witnessed a life forever changed.

The battle had been won—not with swords or might, but with obedience and love.
